

GOVERNMENT FACULTY AND THEIR ADVISING FIELDS
~ 2017-2018 ~

JOSEPH BAFUMI (American Government)

Associate Professor of Government

646-3337, Room 218 Silsby

Electoral behavior; Campaigns and elections; Ideology; Public opinion; The Supreme Court; Public policy; Political methodology

LISA BALDEZ (Comparative Politics)

Professor of Government and LALACS

646-0762, Room 114 Silsby

Latin American politics; Revolution and protest in Latin America; Women's movements in Latin America; Gender and American politics; Gender politics in global perspective; The politics and culture of Cuba; Democracy in Chile

SONU BEDI (Political Theory/Law)

Associate Professor of Government

646-6538, Room 218 Silsby

Law and political theory; Liberalism; Multiculturalism; Democratic theory; Jurisprudence; Constitutional law; Privacy; Identity politics; Theories of justice

DEBORAH BROOKS (American Government)

Associate Professor of Government

646-3919, Room 214 Silsby

American politics; Public opinion; Campaigns and elections; Research methodology; Voting behavior

STEPHEN BROOKS (International Relations)

Associate Professor of Government

646-2735, Room 302 Silsby

Political economy; The globalization of production and international security; International relations theory; Multinational corporations; Regional economic integration

JOHN CAREY (Comparative Politics)

Professor of Government

John Wentworth Professor in the Social Sciences

Chair, Department of Government

646-1130, Room 218A Silsby

Comparative politics, Democratic institutions, Elections, and Latin American politics

SIMON CHAUCHARD (Comparative Politics)

Assistant Professor of Government

Room 121A Silsby

Comparative politics, Ethnic politics, Intergroup relations, South Asian and Indian politics, Field research methods

MICHELLE TOLMAN CLARKE (Political Theory)

Assistant Professor of Government

Co-Director Government Honors Program

646-1352, Room 205 Silsby

Early modern political thought; Classical political philosophy and political history; Republicanism, ancient and modern; Women and gender in the history of political thought; Enlightenment debates; Pluralism

Jeremey Ferwerda (Comparative Politics)

Assistant Professor of Government

Room 202 Silsby

LINDA FOWLER (American Politics)

Professor of Government

Frank J. Reagan '09 Chair in Policy Studies

646-0009, Room 10 Silsby

Legislative politics; Public policy; Interest groups; Participation

JEFF FRIEDMAN (International Relations)

Assistant Professor of Government

646-3469, Room 224 Silsby

National Security, Decision Making, Civil Conflict, Counterinsurgency, Intelligence

MICHAEL HERRON (American Government)

Professor of Government

646-2693, Room 201 Silsby

Statistical methods with a focus on econometrics and research design; Legislative politics focusing on Congress, contemporary legislative theory, comparative legislative institutions, institutional design, and Congressional elections; Political economy with a focus on game theory, business and politics

JEREMY HOROWITZ (Comparative Politics)

Assistant Professor of Government

646-9619, Room 203 Silsby

Ethnic politics, Political violence, Campaigns and voting, Development, Distributional politics, Africa, Policy evaluation

YUSAKU HORIUCHI (Comparative Politics)

Associate Professor of Government; Mitsui Chair in the Study of Japan

646-2828, Room 204 Silsby

Electoral politics, Political economy, Public opinion, Japan, Political Methodology, Statistical Methods, Research Design

DEAN LACY (American Government)

Chair, Department of Government

Professor of Government

646-9228, Room 116 Silsby

Electoral institutions and behavior; Public opinion; Legislatures; Political parties; The presidency; Democratic theory; Behavioral decision theory; Game theory; Survey research; Econometrics

JENNIFER LIND (International Relations)

Associate Professor of Government

646-2282

International relations of East Asia; Japanese politics and foreign policy; U.S. foreign policy toward East Asia; Memory and justice after war; Ethics and the use of force; International relations theory; International security; American foreign policy; Causes of war

MICHAEL MASTANDUNO (International Relations)

Nelson A. Rockefeller Professor of Government

Dean of Faculty Arts and Sciences

646-2125, Room 203 Wentworth

Political economy; American foreign policy; Economic competition among the United States, the European Community and Japan; International relations theory after the Cold War

Nicholas Miller (International Relations)

Assistant Professor of Government

International Security, Nuclear Weapons, US Foreign Policy, Civil War.

RUSSELL MUIRHEAD (Political Theory/Law)

Robert Clements Associate Professor of Democracy and Politics

646-2548, Room 115 Silsby

Contemporary political theory; History of political thought; American political thought; Morality and politics; The problem of partisanship; Ethics and everyday life; Political concepts; Dilemmas in democratic theory

JAMES MURPHY (Political Theory/Law)

Professor of Government

646-2862, Room 206 Silsby

Ancient and medieval political philosophy; Philosophy of law; Ethics

BRENDAN NYHAN (American Government)

Assistant Professor of Government, Room 120 Silsby

American politics; political psychology; political communication; the presidency; social networks; survey research; experiments; research methods.

Kathleen Powers (International Relations)

Assistant Professor of Government

International Relations, Political Psychology, American Foreign Policy, Public Opinion, Experiments, Nationalism.

DARYL PRESS (International Relations)

Associate Professor of Government

646-1707, Room 219A Silsby; 646-2043, 146 Haldeman

International security; American foreign policy; Credibility and deterrence theory; Economic effects of wars, Military analysis; Nuclear weapons

JULIE ROSE (Political Theory/Law)

Assistant Professor of Government

646-9682, Room 231 Silsby

Contemporary political philosophy; economic justice; history of political thought; ethics and public policy; normative ethics

LUCAS SWAINE (Political Theory)

Associate Professor of Government

646-0765, Room 230 Silsby

Political philosophy; History of political thought; Religion and politics; Law and ethics; Comparative politics

DALE TURNER (Political Theory/Native American Studies)

Associate Professor of Government and Native American Studies

646-0766, Room 229 Silsby/646-0324, Room 202 Sherman

Social and political philosophy; Amerindian philosophy; Philosophy of law; Early modern political philosophy

BENJAMIN VALENTINO (International Relations)

Associate Professor of Government

Co-Director Government Honors Program

646-2555, Room 208 Silsby

American foreign policy; National security policy; Theories of international relations; Causes of war and peace; The nuclear age; Causes of and solutions to ethnic conflict, genocide, and mass killing

DIRK VANDEWALLE (Comparative Politics/ International Relations)

Associate Professor of Government

646-2357, Room 232 Silsby

Middle East and North Africa; Comparative government and comparative economic development; Development of the Third World - Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand

WILLIAM WOHLFORTH (International Relations)

Daniel Webster Professor of Government

646-3460, Room 207 Silsby

International relations theory; International security; Foreign policy and decision-making; Russian foreign policy and international politics of Eurasia; American foreign and military policy; Cold and end of Cold War

Sean Westwood (American Politics)

Assistant Professor of Government

Room 210 Silsby