

GOVERNMENT FACULTY AND THEIR ADVISING FIELDS
2020-2021

JOSEPH BAFUMI (American Government)

Associate Professor of Government

646-3337, Room 218 Silsby

Electoral behavior; Campaigns and elections; Ideology; Public opinion; The Supreme Court; Public policy; Political methodology

LISA BALDEZ (Comparative Politics)

Professor of Government and LALACS

646-0762, Room 114 Silsby

Latin American politics; Revolution and protest in Latin America; Women's movements in Latin America; Gender and American politics; Gender politics in global perspective; The politics and culture of Cuba; Democracy in Chile.

JASON BARABAS (American Government)

Director, Nelson A. Rockefeller Center

Professor of Government

Representation; Public opinion; Public policy; Political psychology; Methodology.

SONU BEDI (Political Theory/Law)

Professor of Government

646-6538, Room 218 Silsby

Law and political theory; Liberalism; Multiculturalism; Democratic theory; Jurisprudence; Constitutional law; Privacy; Identity politics; Theories of justice.

DEBORAH BROOKS (American Government)

Associate Professor of Government

646-3919, Room 214 Silsby

American politics; Public opinion; Campaigns and elections; Research methodology; Voting behavior.

STEPHEN BROOKS (International Relations)

Professor of Government

646-2735, Room 302 Silsby

Political economy; The globalization of production and international security; International relations theory; Multinational corporations; Regional economic integration.

JOHN CAREY (Comparative Politics)

Professor of Government

John Wentworth Professor in the Social Sciences

646-1130, Room 218A Silsby

Comparative politics; Democratic institutions; Elections; Latin American politics.

MICHELLE CLARKE (Political Theory)

Assistant Professor of Government

646-1352, Room 205 Silsby

Early modern political thought; Classical political philosophy and political history; Republicanism, ancient and modern; Women and gender in the history of political thought; Enlightenment debates; Pluralism.

MIA COSTA (American Government)

Assistant Professor of Government

646-2026, Room 203 Silsby

Political behavior; Public opinion; Representation; Legislative behavior; Gender and American politics; Voting; Research methodology; Experiments.

CHARLES CRABTREE (American Politics)

Assistant Professor of Government

Room 209 Silsby

Fairness in politics; Discrimination; Research Design; Experiments; Measurements; Japanese Politics.

JEREMY FERWERDA (Comparative Politics)

Assistant Professor of Government

Room 202 Silsby

Immigration; European Politics; Populism; Political Economy; Decentralization; Social Policy.

LINDA FOWLER (American Politics)

Professor of Government

Frank J. Reagan '09 Chair in Policy Studies

646-0009, Room 10 Silsby

Legislative politics; Public policy; Interest groups; Participation.

JEFFREY FRIEDMAN (International Relations)

Associate Professor of Government

646-3469, Room 224 Silsby

National Security; Decision Making; Civil Conflict; Counterinsurgency; Intelligence.

MICHAEL HERRON (American Government)

Professor of Government

646-2693, Room 121B Silsby

Statistical methods with a focus on econometrics and research design; Legislative politics focusing on Congress, contemporary legislative theory, comparative legislative institutions, institutional design, and Congressional elections; Political economy with a focus on game theory; Business and politics.

YUSAKU HORIUCHI (Comparative Politics)

Professor of Government

Mitsui Chair in the Study of Japan

646-2828, Room 204 Silsby

Electoral politics; Political economy; Public opinion; Japan; Political Methodology; Statistical Methods; Research Design.

JENNIFER JERIT (American Government)

Professor of Government

646-2339, Room 112 Silsby

Public opinion; Political psychology; Political communication; Experimental methodology.

DEAN LACY (American Government)

Professor of Government

Director, Program in Politics and Law

646-9228, Room 116 Silsby

Electoral institutions and behavior; Public opinion; Legislatures; Political parties; The presidency; Democratic theory; Behavioral decision theory; Game theory; Survey research; Statistics.

JENNIFER LIND (International Relations)

Associate Professor of Government

646-2282, Room 219 Silsby

International relations; international security; East Asia; US foreign policy in Asia; US-China relations; Grand strategy; Rising powers; Nationalism.

JASON LYALL (International Relations)

Associate Professor of Government

James Wright Chair in Transnational Studies

Room 229 Silsby

International Security; Dynamics of Violence; Identity; Causal Inference; Russia; Afghanistan.

MICHAEL MASTANDUNO (International Relations)

Nelson A. Rockefeller Professor of Government

646-2125, Room 203 Wentworth

Political economy; American foreign policy; Economic competition among the United States, the European Community and Japan; International relations theory after the Cold War.

NICHOLAS MILLER (International Relations)

Assistant Professor of Government

646-2546, Room 225 Silsby

International Security; Nuclear Weapons; US Foreign Policy; Civil War.

RUSSELL MUIRHEAD (Political Theory/Law)

Chair, Department of Government

Robert Clements Associate Professor of Democracy and Politics

646-2548, Room 115 Silsby

Contemporary political theory; History of political thought; American political thought; Morality and politics; The problem of partisanship; Ethics and everyday life; Political concepts; Dilemmas in democratic theory.

JAMES MURPHY (Political Theory/Law)

Professor of Government

646-2862, Room 206 Silsby

Ancient and medieval political philosophy; Philosophy of law; Ethics.

BRENDAN NYHAN (American Politics)

Professor of Government

Room 122 Silsby

Misperceptions and conspiracy theories; Political communication and the media; Political scandal and corruption; Experiments and applied statistical methods.

KATHLEEN POWERS (International Relations)

Assistant Professor of Government

646-3258, Room 223 Silsby

International Relations; Political Psychology; American Foreign Policy; Public Opinion; Experiments; Nationalism.

DARYL PRESS (International Relations)

Associate Professor of Government

646-1707, Room 120 Silsby; 646-2043, 146 Haldeman

International security; American foreign policy; Credibility and deterrence theory; Economic effects of wars; Military analysis; Nuclear weapons.

JULIE ROSE (Political Theory/Law)

Associate Professor of Government

646-9682, Room 231 Silsby

Contemporary political philosophy; Economic justice; History of political thought; Ethics and public policy; Normative ethics.

LUCAS SWAINE (Political Theory/Law)

Associate Professor of Government

646-0765, Room 230 Silsby

Political philosophy; Normative political theory; History of political thought; Religion and politics; Multiculturalism; Philosophy of Law; Rights and liberties; Ethics and public policy.

SHATEMA THREADCRAFT (Political Theory/Law)

Associate Professor of Government

Room 216 Silsby

Contemporary political theory; Gender and political theory; Critical race theory; Theories of justice.

BENJAMIN VALENTINO (International Relations)

Associate Professor of Government

Co-Director Government Honors Program

646-2555, Room 208 Silsby

American foreign policy; National security policy; Theories of international relations; Causes of war and peace; The nuclear age; Causes of and solutions to ethnic conflict, Genocide and mass killing.

DIRK VANDEWALLE (Comparative Politics/ International Relations)

Associate Professor of Government

646-2357, Room 232 Silsby

Middle East and North Africa; Comparative government and comparative economic development; Development of the Third World - Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand.

SEAN WESTWOOD (American Politics)

Assistant Professor of Government

Room 210 Silsby

Political representation and partisanship; Experimental design.

WILLIAM WOHLFORTH (International Relations)

Daniel Webster Professor of Government

646-3460, Room 207 Silsby

International relations theory; International security; Foreign policy and decision-making; Russian foreign policy and international politics of Eurasia; American foreign and military policy; Cold and end of Cold War.

Further Information Available at www.govt.dartmouth.edu/people