GOVERNMENT FACULTY AND THEIR ADVISING FIELDS
~ 2019-2020 ~

JOSEPH BAFUMI (American Government)
Associate Professor of Government
646-3337, Room 218 Silsby
Electoral behavior; Campaigns and elections; Ideology; Public opinion; The Supreme Court; Public policy; Political methodology

LISA BALDEZ (Comparative Politics)
Professor of Government and LALACS
646-0762, Room 114 Silsby
Latin American politics; Revolution and protest in Latin America; Women’s movements in Latin America; Gender and American politics; Gender politics in global perspective; The politics and culture of Cuba; Democracy in Chile

SONU BEDI (Political Theory/Law)
Associate Professor of Government
646-6538, Room 218 Silsby
Law and political theory; Liberalism; Multiculturalism; Democratic theory; Jurisprudence; Constitutional law; Privacy; Identity politics; Theories of justice

DEBORAH BROOKS (American Government)
Associate Professor of Government
646-3919, Room 214 Silsby
American politics; Public opinion; Campaigns and elections; Research methodology; Voting behavior

STEPHEN BROOKS (International Relations)
Professor of Government
646-2735, Room 302 Silsby
Political economy; The globalization of production and international security; International relations theory; Multinational corporations; Regional economic integration

JOHN CAREY (Comparative Politics)
Professor of Government
John Wentworth Professor in the Social Sciences
Co-Director Government Honors Program
646-1130, Room 218A Silsby
Comparative politics, Democratic institutions, Elections, and Latin American politics

MICHELLE CLARKE (Political Theory)
Assistant Professor of Government
Co-Director Government Honors Program
646-1352, Room 205 Silsby
Early modern political thought; Classical political philosophy and political history; Republicanism, ancient and modern; Women and gender in the history of political thought; Enlightenment debates; Pluralism

MIA COSTA (American Government)
Assistant Professor of Government
646-2026, Room 203 Silsby
Political behavior; Public opinion; Representation; Legislative behavior; Gender and American politics; Voting; Research methodology; Experiments

JEREMY FERWERDA (Comparative Politics)
Assistant Professor of Government
Room 202 Silsby
Immigration, European Politics, Populism, Political Economy, Decentralization, Social Policy
LINDA FOWLER (American Politics)
Professor of Government
Frank J. Reagan '09 Chair in Policy Studies
646-0009, Room 10 Silsby
Legislative politics; Public policy; Interest groups; Participation

JEFFREY FRIEDMAN (International Relations)
Assistant Professor of Government
646-3469, Room 224 Silsby
National Security, Decision Making, Civil Conflict, Counterinsurgency, Intelligence

MICHAEL HERRON (American Government)
Professor of Government
646-2693, Room 121B Silsby
Statistical methods with a focus on econometrics and research design; Legislative politics focusing on Congress, contemporary legislative theory, comparative legislative institutions, institutional design, and Congressional elections; Political economy with a focus on game theory, business and politics

JEREMY HOROWITZ (Comparative Politics)
Assistant Professor of Government
646-9619, Room 219A Silsby
Ethnic politics, Political violence, Campaigns and voting, Development, Distributional politics, Africa, Policy evaluation

YUSAKU HORIUCHI (Comparative Politics)
Associate Professor of Government; Mitsui Chair in the Study of Japan
646-2828, Room 204 Silsby
Electoral politics, Political economy, Public opinion, Japan, Political Methodology, Statistical Methods, Research Design

DEAN LACY (American Government)
Chair, Department of Government
Director, Program in Politics and Law
Professor of Government
646-9228, Room 116 Silsby
Electoral institutions and behavior; Public opinion; Legislatures; Political parties; The presidency; Democratic theory; Behavioral decision theory; Game theory; Survey research; Statistics

JENNIFER LIND (International Relations)
Associate Professor of Government
646-2282, Room 219 Silsby
International relations, international security, East Asia, US foreign policy in Asia, US-China relations, grand strategy, rising powers, nationalism

JASON LYALL (International Relations)
Professor of Government
Room 229 Silsby
International Security, Dynamics of Violence, Identity, Causal Inference, Russia and Afghanistan

MICHAEL MASTANDUNO (International Relations)
Nelson A. Rockefeller Professor of Government
646-2125, Room 203 Wentworth
Political economy; American foreign policy; Economic competition among the United States, the European Community and Japan; International relations theory after the Cold War

NICHOLAS MILLER (International Relations)
Assistant Professor of Government
646-2546, Room 225 Silsby
RUSSELL MUIRHEAD (Political Theory/Law)
Robert Clements Associate Professor of Democracy and Politics
646-2548, Room 115 Silsby
Contemporary political theory; History of political thought; American political thought; Morality and politics; The problem of partisanship; Ethics and everyday life; Political concepts; Dilemmas in democratic theory

JAMES MURPHY (Political Theory/Law)
Professor of Government
646-2862, Room 206 Silsby
Ancient and medieval political philosophy; Philosophy of law; Ethics

BRENDAN NYHAN (American Politics)
Associate Professor of Government
Room 122 Silsby
American politics and Healthcare

KATHLEEN POWERS (International Relations)
Assistant Professor of Government
646-3258, Room 223 Silsby
International Relations, Political Psychology, American Foreign Policy, Public Opinion, Experiments, Nationalism.

DARYL PRESS (International Relations)
Associate Professor of Government
646-1707, Room 120 Silsby; 646-2043, 146 Haldeman
International security; American foreign policy; Credibility and deterrence theory; Economic effects of wars, Military analysis; Nuclear weapons

JULIE ROSE (Political Theory/Law)
Assistant Professor of Government
646-9682, Room 231 Silsby
Contemporary political philosophy; economic justice; history of political thought; ethics and public policy; normative ethics

LUCAS SWAINE (Political Theory/Law)
Associate Professor of Government
646-0765, Room 230 Silsby
Political philosophy; Normative political theory; History of political thought; Religion and politics; Multiculturalism; Philosophy of Law; Rights and liberties; Ethics and public policy

SHATEMA THREADCRAFT (Political Theory/Law)
Associate Professor of Government
Room 216 Silsby
Contemporary political theory, gender and political theory, critical race theory, theories of justice

BENJAMIN VALENTINO (International Relations)
Associate Professor of Government
Co-Director Government Honors Program
646-2555, Room 208 Silsby
American foreign policy; National security policy; Theories of international relations; Causes of war and peace; The nuclear age; Causes of and solutions to ethnic conflict, genocide, and mass killing

DIRK VANDEWALLE (Comparative Politics/ International Relations)
Associate Professor of Government
646-2357, Room 232 Silsby
Middle East and North Africa; Comparative government and comparative economic development; Development of the Third World - Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand

WILLIAM WOHLFORTH (International Relations)
Daniel Webster Professor of Government
646-3460, Room 207 Silsby
International relations theory; International security; Foreign policy and decision-making; Russian foreign policy and international politics of Eurasia; American foreign and military policy; Cold and end of Cold War
SEAN WESTWOOD (American Politics)
Assistant Professor of Government
Room 210 Silsby

Further Information Available at www.govt.dartmouth.edu/people