

Government Major Worksheet

The field of Government, or Political Science, is divided into four “subfields” and Political Analysis Government Course Numbers by Subfield:

- American Politics (Intro. 3, Upper – Levels 30’s, Seminars 83’s)
- Comparative Politics (Intro. 4, Upper – levels 40’s, Seminars 84’s)
- International Relations (Intro. 5, Upper – levels 50’s, Seminars 85’s)
- Political Theory/Public Law (Intro. 6, Upper – levels 60’s, Seminars 86’s)
- Political Analysis (Upper – level courses 11-19)
- Courses that Cross Subfields (Upper – levels 20’s and Seminars 81’s)

Prerequisite:

Government 10, Economics 10, Math 10 (circle one) _____ Term
Another course in the statistics and methods of social science may be substituted for Government 10 with the permission of the department chair.

In Addition to the Prerequisite, 10 courses are required for the Government Major:

2 Introductory Courses:

- Government 3 – The American Political System _____ Term
- Government 4 – Comparative Politics _____ Term
- Government 5 – International Politics _____ Term
- Government 6 – Political Ideas _____ Term

2 Seminar Courses (One of which is the culminated experience):

(Apart from 94, 95, and 97 you may take multiple sections with each of these numbers as long as they are unique courses.)

- |   | Term  | Term  |
|---|-------|-------|
| Government 80 – Independent Study   | _____ | _____ |
| Government 81 – Seminars that are in two or more subfields                          | _____ | _____ |
| Government 83 – Seminars in American Government                                     | _____ | _____ |
| Government 84 – Seminars in Comparative Politics                                    | _____ | _____ |
| Government 85 – Seminars in International Relations                                 | _____ | _____ |
| Government 86 – Seminars in Political Theory and Law                                | _____ | _____ |
| Government 92 – Seminar taught by Dartmouth Government Faculty – London FSP         |       | _____ |
| Government 94 – Seminar taught by Dartmouth Government Faculty – Washington, DC FSP |       | _____ |
| Government 95 – Seminar taught by Dartmouth Government Faculty – Washington, DC FSP |       | _____ |
| Government 97 – First of 3 required courses for the Honors Program                  |       | _____ |

6 Additional Courses at any level:

- |                  |            |                  |            |
|------------------|------------|------------------|------------|
| Government _____ | Term _____ | Government _____ | Term _____ |
| Government _____ | Term _____ | Government _____ | Term _____ |
| Government _____ | Term _____ | Government _____ | Term _____ |

For course descriptions, the most current course schedules and Honors Program requirements, please consult our website www.govt.dartmouth.edu