Government Major Modified – Type B

Prerequisites (2 courses):

- GOVT 10, ECON 10, or MATH 10 (circle one) _________ Term
- Economics 1: The Price System: Analysis, problems, and policies _________ Term

Courses required to complete the Government Major modified (10 courses total)

1. Introductory Courses (2 courses):

- Government 6: Political Ideas _________ Term
- Government ____: _________________________ (GOVT 3, 4, 5) ________ Term

2. Political Science (2 courses):

- Government ____: _________________________ ________ Term
- Government ____: _________________________ ________ Term

Please check list of Political Science courses on the back

3. Government Seminars (2 courses, which are the culminating experience):

- Government ____: _________________________ (seminar) ________ Term
- Government ____: _________________________ (seminar) ________ Term

Please check list of Government Seminars on the back.

4. Political Economy and Political Theory (4 courses):

- Economics______: _________________________ ________ Term
- Economics______: _________________________ ________ Term
- Philosophy______: _________________________ ________ Term
- Philosophy______: _________________________ ________ Term

Important: check prerequisites before enrolling

Please check list of Political Economy and Political Theory courses on the back.

This form needs to be approved by the Department of Government Vice-Chair by the end of the sophomore year.
Political Economy, Political Theory, and Political Science courses:

- Choose any government courses Levels 60’s or 86’s
- GOVT 20.03: Morality and Political Economy
- GOVT 24: Development in Emerging Economies
- GOVT 20.02: Foundations of Political Economy
- GOVT 30.01: The Federal Budget
- GOVT 30.07: American Political Economy
- GOVT 40.07: Comparative Political Economy
- GOVT 40.15: Commodities, Globalization, and Development in Latin America
- GOVT 44: Globalization and Global Development
- GOVT 50.14: Consequences of Globalization
- GOVT 58: International Political Economy
- GOVT 81.03: Economic Growth and Reform in Emerging Economies (Comparative and Intl Relations)
- GOVT 83.02: Politics and Markets
- GOVT 83.07: Politics and Economics
- GOVT 84.01: Dilemmas of Development: India, China and Egypt
- GOVT 84.14: Foreign Aid
- GOVT 84.33: Political Economy of the Middle East
- ECON 5/GOVT 86.25: Adam Smith and Political Economy
- ECON 15: Political Economy of China
- ECON 16: Political Economy of Regulation
- ECON 17: Technological Progress and the Entrepreneurial Economy
- ECON 21: Microeconomics
- ECON 22: Macroeconomics
- ECON 73: The Political Economy of Development
- PHIL 1.07: Life, Death, Relationships, and Meaning
- PHIL 4: Philosophy and Gender
- PHIL 8: Introduction to Moral Philosophy
- PHIL 9: Applied Ethics
- PHIL 9.01: Reproductive Ethics
- PHIL 9.02: Environmental Ethics
- PHIL 9.04: Topics in Applied Ethics: The Ethics of Food Choice and Food Policy
- PHIL 9.06: Friends, Lovers, and Comrades: Ethical Issues of Special Relationships
- PHIL 9.07: Ethics of Freedom, Paternalism, and Intervention
- PHIL 9.08: Ethics and the Internet
- PHIL 16.02: Kant on Moral, Legal, and Political Philosophy
- PHIL 22: Feminism and Philosophy
- PHIL 23.01: Ethics and the Arts
- PHIL 24: Law and Philosophy
- PHIL 31.06: Free Will, Agency and Responsibility
- PHIL 36: Metaethics
- PHIL 37: Ethical Theory
- PHIL 38: Social and Political Philosophy
- PHIL 50.14: Property, Markets, and Capitalism
- PHIL 50.17: Global Expressive Rights
- PHIL 50.21: Current Research in Social/Political Philosophy
- PHIL 50.23: Virtue Ethics
PHIL 50.24: Moral Epistemology
PHIL 50.25: Moral Sentimentalism
PHIL 80.11: Ethical Issues in Artificial Intelligence
PHIL 80.12: Free Will, Responsibility and the Brain
PHIL 80.13: Love, Respect, and Moral Obligation
PHIL 80.20: Controversies in Feminist Philosophy
Important: check prerequisites before enrolling
Courses above PHIL 10 require 1 intro PHIL course. Any PHIL 50 requires 2 previous philosophy courses.
ECON courses require ECON 1. Some also have MATH 3 as a prerequisite.
For course descriptions and the most current course schedules, please consult the ORC/Catalog, the Timetable of Class Meetings, and the Philosophy Department website

The Government Department offers seminars in the following fields:
• Government 80 – Independent Study
• Government 81 – Seminars in two or more subfields
• Government 83 – Seminars in American Government
• Government 84 – Seminars in Comparative Politics
• Government 85 – Seminars in International Relations
• Government 86 – Seminars in Political Theory and Law
• Government 92 – Seminar London FSP/Taught by Dartmouth faculty
• Government 94 – Seminar Washington, DC FSP/Taught by Dartmouth faculty
• Government 95 – Seminar Washington, DC FSP/Taught by Dartmouth faculty
• Government 97 – First of 3 required courses for the Honors Program

For course descriptions and the most current course schedules and Honors Program requirements, please consult the ORC/Catalog, The Timetable of Class Meetings, and the Government website